PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Rolling topography and loamy soils, combined with a mixture of mature and young timber, make this property an excellent choice for a variety of uses, whether your objectives are timber, wildlife, recreation, or residential.

TIMBER

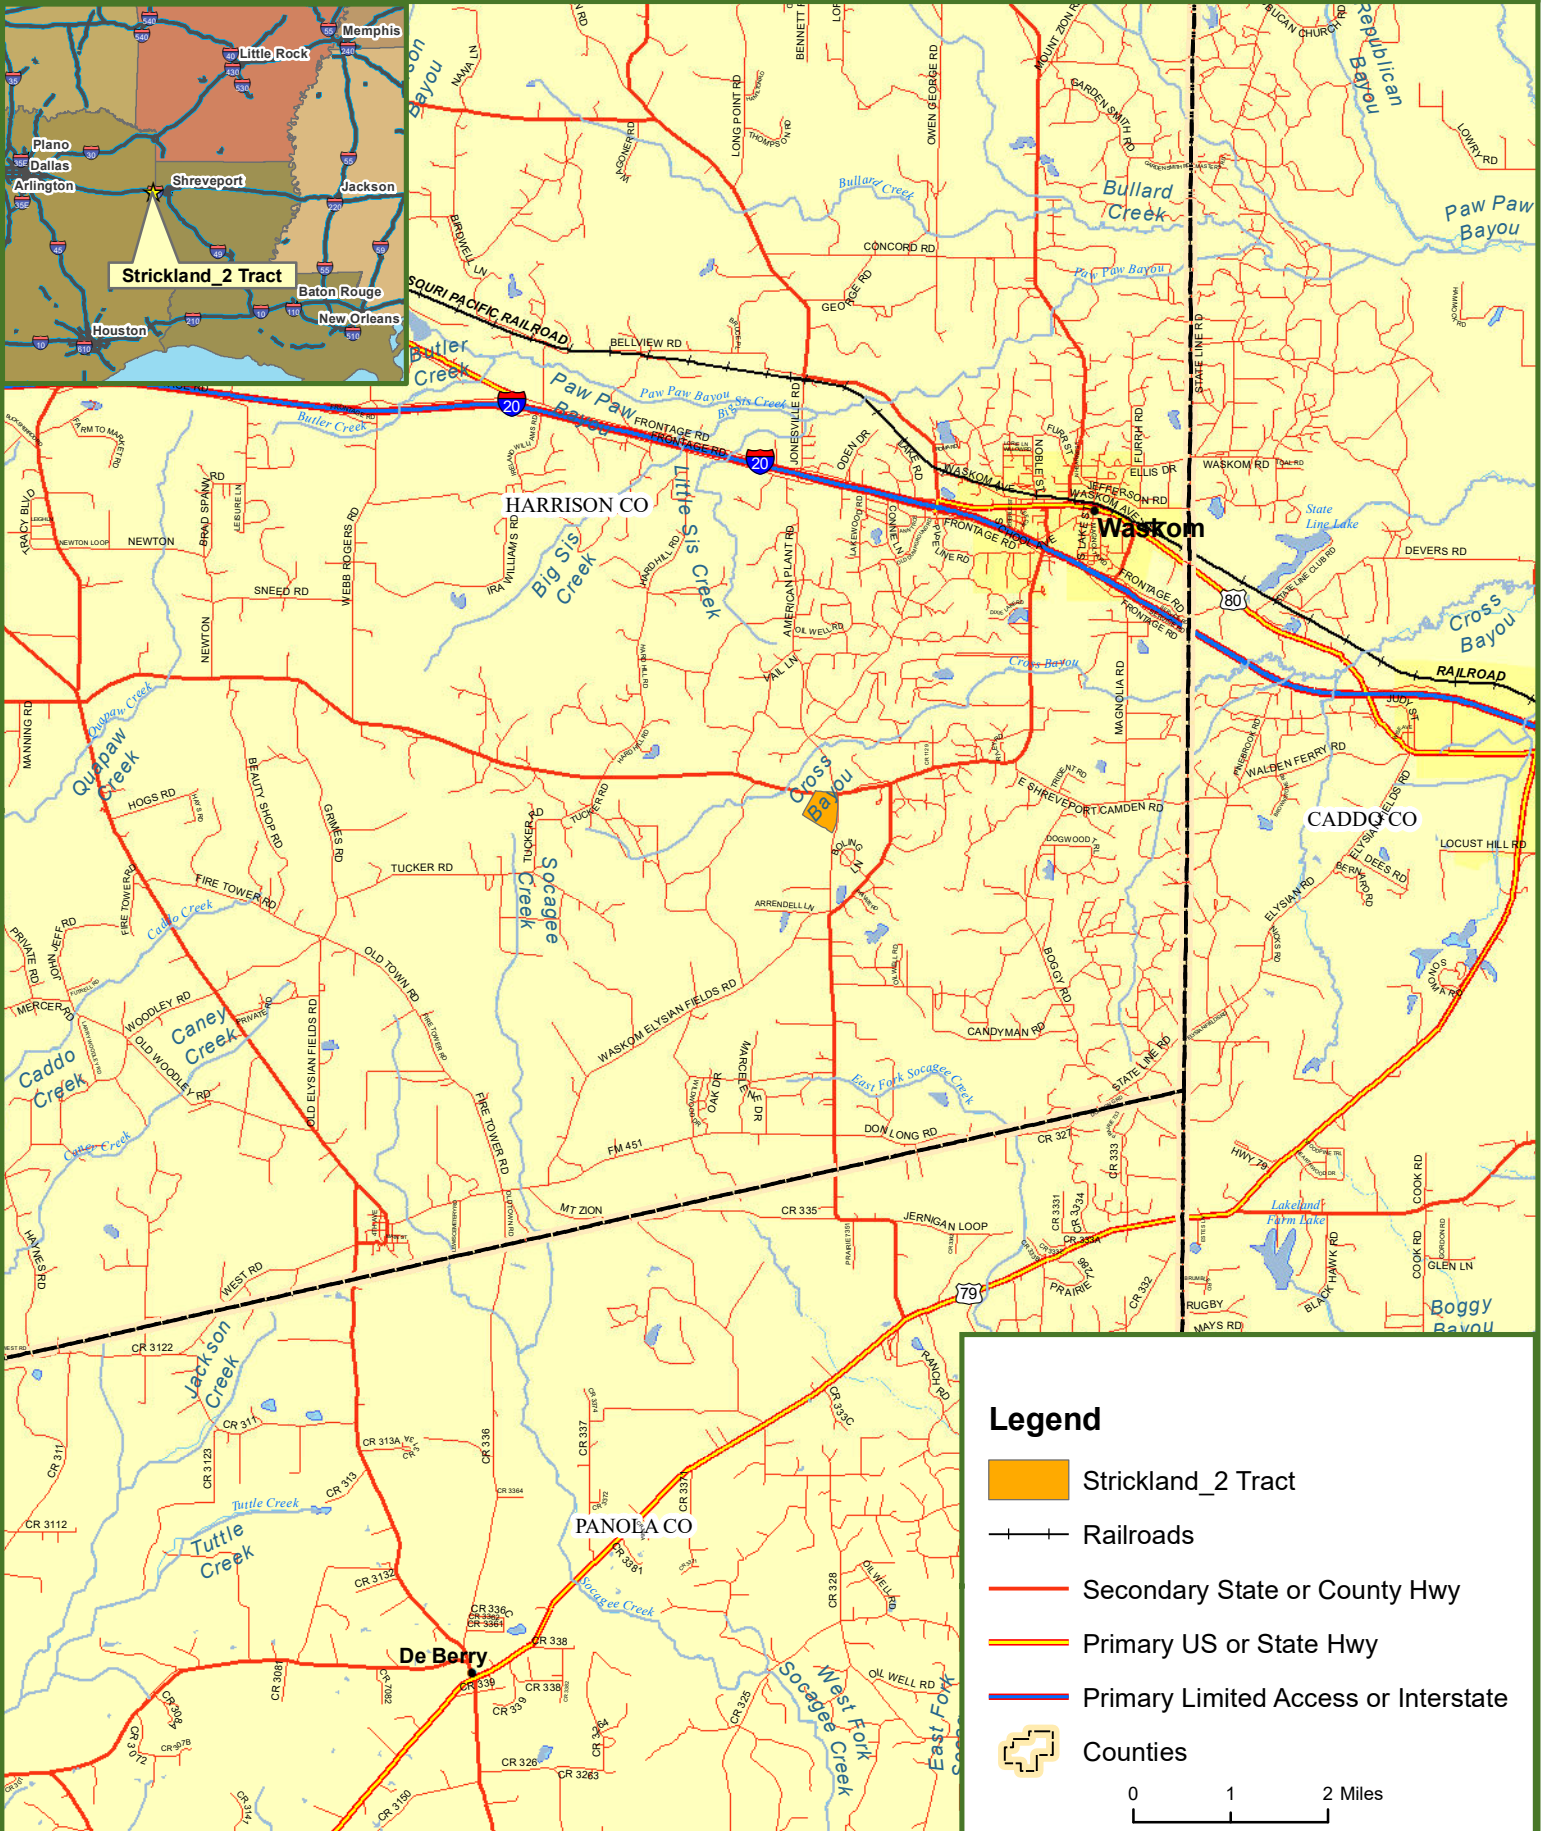

This historic timberland tract offers a mixture of newly planted loblolly plantations, mid-rotation-aged loblolly plantations, and mature natural timber in the SMZs. The plantation pine was intensively site-prepped, planted with 2nd Generation containerized seedlings from the IFCO nursery in DeRidder, LA, and sprayed for herbaceous weed control to minimize competition to the seedlings. The creek banks have been protected in Stream Side Management Zones (SMZ), providing wildlife travel corridors that offer a mosaic canvas of mature natural forests breaking up the young plantation pine.

TAXES & TITLE

The property currently carries a timber agricultural exemption, keeping annual taxes around $2 per acre per year. The buyers will need to file a 1-D-1 timber exemption form and a timber management plan with the Harrison County CAD to keep the exemption after property transfer. Property deed records can be found in Book Number 2022-000015123.
